Campus Ministry:

- Wednesday: 6:30pm Supper 7:30pm Bible Study

Christ commands in these words that this Sacrament be administered in His Church until the Last Day. In this Sacrament, His saving death is proclaimed and the fruits of His atonement are distributed for the forgiveness of our sins. This is done as bread and wine are consecrated with our Lord's words (the Words of Institution), distributed to the communicants, and eaten and drunk. Jesus' command to do "this" includes all these aspects of the Lord's Supper: "In an assembly of Christians bread and wine are taken, consecrated, distributed, received, eaten, drunk, and the Lord's death is shown forth at the same time" (FC SD VII 84)

1 Corinthians 11:26 For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until He comes.

Listen to "The Lutheran Hour" at 1:00PM Sundays on WGNX 96.7 November 17 "The Dawn Wall"
 Speaker: Rev. Dr. Michael Zeigler Genesis Series - Sacrifice is acting on the hope of a better future by offering up something valuable in the present. (Genesis 22) November 24 "Loved and Sent: God Is Love"
 Guest Speaker: Pastor Jeff Cloeter Love can be a frustrating and confusing word. We use it to describe so many different things, many of which aren't really love, at all. Jeff had grown tired of hearing the word-until he learned that real love is "not that we had loved God, but that God loved us and sent His Son. (1 John 4:7-12)
 (You can also listen to TLH at 7:00AM on Sundays at 92.5FM out of Beardstown.)

November 17 "God's labor of redeeming—Word become flesh, Christ reconciling the world by dying and rising again—proves all human beings precious ... His indiscriminating grace—not anyone's age or appearance or ability, wherever we come from and whatever we have done—imparts sanctity and affirms significance to every member of the species homo sapiens." Rev. Michael W. Salemink, executive director of Lutherans For Life – A Life Quote from Lutherans For Life • www.lutheransforlife.org

Please send any prayer requests to be included in the bulletin to Cindy. Please fill out pew attendance form each Sunday so that weekly attendance can be recorded.

Luke 21:6 – “As for these things that you see, the days will come when there will not be left here one stone upon another that will not be thrown down.” Everything in this world is headed for the graveyard, but some things are also destined to rise from the grave. On that Day of Resurrection, as we look back on our earthly life, what will we see? What will have really mattered? This is a good question to ask ourselves in this season of the Church Year that focuses on the Last Things.

Did God say, “Clump of cells, blob of tissue, tumor, parasite”? Or did He stipulate the image of God, knit together in the womb? (Genesis 1:26-27; Psalm 139:13)

Did God say, “Uterine contents, products of conception, incompatible with life”? Or did He specify the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, like His brothers in every respect? (John 1:14; Hebrews 2:17)
