How do you compare to your next-door neighbor, your brother-in-law, or the person you were five years ago? Comparing ourselves against God's requirements can prompt us to turn in repentant faith to Jesus, the Savior beyond compare. It's "Archives August". (You can also listen to TLH at 7:00AM on Sundays at 92.5FM out of Beardstown.)

August 16 "Christianity proclaims a God who valued humanity so much that in Jesus God took on flesh, becoming human. He took on His own jar of clay and in so doing gifted all of humanity with immeasurable treasure." Margaret Manning Shull, Ravi Zacharias International Ministries – A Life Quote from Lutherans For Life • www.lutheransforlife.org

Luke 19:45-46 – "And he entered the temple and began to drive out those who sold, saying to them, 'It is written, "My house shall be a house of prayer," but you have made it a den of robbers.' " The sellers in the temple were doing the right thing in the wrong place. Being a merchant is a fine occupation that is pleasing to God. But using the Lord's House for your personal gain? That makes a mockery of what the Church is for. This is God's House, where we come to hear His Word and offer Him our worship and praise in word and deed. We're not looking for a profit here, we're looking to give back and support the preaching of God's Word and the Church's care for the poor and needy.

Re: Audit of Treasurer's File – Immanuel Lutheran Church and Student Center

The audit committee, selected by the president of the church council, met with the treasurer of Immanuel Lutheran Church and Student Center on July 23, 2020 at 9:30 am., to audit the treasurer's files for 2019. The audit began with the treasurer's explanation of the process used in the recording of all financial transactions and the filing system used in storing the documentation of those transactions. The audit committee examined the materials of record. After reviewing these records and documentation, the audit committee determined that the records were in excellent order.

The audit committee recommends approval of the 2019 audit report.

Respectfully submitted,

Audit committee: Michelle Wenndt Mary Strode
