August 23 “We run to help people in need; we run to deal with emergencies and crises and the problems of every day; we take the Good News to people we love, family and friends and neighbors alike. But there are also times we can sit—and rejoice that Jesus is risen, that evil is conquered, and that God’s victory is certain.” Dr. Kari Vo – A Life Quote from Lutherans For Life • www.lutheransforlife.org

Matt. 16:27 – “For the Son of Man is going to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay each person according to what he has done.” St Paul talks about rewards on the Last Day in 1 Corinthians 3, and Jesus says more about this “repaying” in Matt. 19:27-30. Bottom line: Your good works can’t buy you heaven, but in Christ your good works do matter. They are pleasing to your Heavenly Father, and they will be rewarded. In other words, our sacrifices for the Lord’s Kingdom are not in vain, and they are not unnoticed by your Father. This should encourage you in your faithfulness.

The August 4 explosion in the Beirut, Lebanon harbor destroyed three of LWR's (Lutheran World Relief) 40-foot shipping containers stored in the port. These containers held more than 22,000 LWR Mission Quilts, 100 cartons of School Kits, 300 cartons of Personal Care kits, and 125 cartons of Baby Care kits that were being prepared for distribution to an estimated 24,550 men, women, and children who were already in great need. The total monetary value of this loss is more than $623,000, although the value of the time and love of the quilters and kit-makers put into sewing, assembling, and praying over these items is impossible to calculate. Though the loss is small compared to any loss of life, LWR is devastated that our neighbors who were already struggling in refugee camps and those that lost their homes as a result of the explosion will suffer even more without them.

What can you do, you ask? You can

1. donate money either this Sunday (August 23) or next (August 30) that will be sent to LWR, and/or
2. donate items for a school kit(s) and/or personal care kit(s). We will collect complete kits at the Church until Sunday, October 25. Assemble a kit with the following items in a plastic bag and put it in the room to the left of the entrance to the Church.

SCHOOL KIT

- 4 - 70-sheet spiral notebooks of wide- or college-ruled paper, approximately 8"x10.5"
- 1 - 30 cm ruler, or a ruler with centimeters on one side and inches on the other
- 1 - pencil sharpener
- 1 - pair of blunt scissors (safety scissors with embedded steel blades work well)
- 5 - unsharpened #2 pencils with erasers; secure together with a rubber band
- 5 - black or blue ballpoint pens (no gel ink); secure together with a rubber band
- 1 - box of 16 or 24 crayons
- 1 - 2.5 inch eraser

PERSONAL CARE KIT

- 1 - light-weight bath size towel (between 20"x40" and 52"x27"), dark color recommended
- 1 - adult size toothbrush in its original packaging*
- 1 - sturdy comb
- 1 - metal nail clippers

* toothbrush multi-packs may be used by sealing an individual toothbrush in a business-sized envelope

August 23 “We run to help people in need; we run to deal with emergencies and crises and the problems of every day; we take the Good News to people we love, family and friends and neighbors alike. But there are also times we can sit—and rejoice that Jesus is risen, that evil is conquered, and that God’s victory is certain.” Dr. Kari Vo – A Life Quote from Lutherans For Life • www.lutheransforlife.org

Matt. 16:27 – “For the Son of Man is going to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay each person according to what he has done.” St Paul talks about rewards on the Last Day in 1 Corinthians 3, and Jesus says more about this “repaying” in Matt. 19:27-30. Bottom line: Your good works can’t buy you heaven, but in Christ your good works do matter. They are pleasing to your Heavenly Father, and they will be rewarded. In other words, our sacrifices for the Lord’s Kingdom are not in vain, and they are not unnoticed by your Father. This should encourage you in your faithfulness.

The August 4 explosion in the Beirut, Lebanon harbor destroyed three of LWR's (Lutheran World Relief) 40-foot shipping containers stored in the port. These containers held more than 22,000 LWR Mission Quilts, 100 cartons of School Kits, 300 cartons of Personal Care kits, and 125 cartons of Baby Care kits that were being prepared for distribution to an estimated 24,550 men, women, and children who were already in great need. The total monetary value of this loss is more than $623,000, although the value of the time and love of the quilters and kit-makers put into sewing, assembling, and praying over these items is impossible to calculate. Though the loss is small compared to any loss of life, LWR is devastated that our neighbors who were already struggling in refugee camps and those that lost their homes as a result of the explosion will suffer even more without them.

What can you do, you ask? You can

1. donate money either this Sunday (August 23) or next (August 30) that will be sent to LWR, and/or
2. donate items for a school kit(s) and/or personal care kit(s). We will collect complete kits at the Church until Sunday, October 25. Assemble a kit with the following items in a plastic bag and put it in the room to the left of the entrance to the Church.

SCHOOL KIT

- 4 - 70-sheet spiral notebooks of wide- or college-ruled paper, approximately 8"x10.5"

The August 4 explosion in the Beirut, Lebanon harbor destroyed three of LWR's (Lutheran World Relief) 40-foot shipping containers stored in the port. These containers held more than 22,000 LWR Mission Quilts, 100 cartons of School Kits, 300 cartons of Personal Care kits, and 125 cartons of Baby Care kits that were being prepared for distribution to an estimated 24,550 men, women, and children who were already in great need. The total monetary value of this loss is more than $623,000, although the value of the time and love of the quilters and kit-makers put into sewing, assembling, and praying over these items is impossible to calculate. Though the loss is small compared to any loss of life, LWR is devastated that our neighbors who were already struggling in refugee camps and those that lost their homes as a result of the explosion will suffer even more without them.

What can you do, you ask? You can

1. donate money either this Sunday (August 23) or next (August 30) that will be sent to LWR, and/or
2. donate items for a school kit(s) and/or personal care kit(s). We will collect complete kits at the Church until Sunday, October 25. Assemble a kit with the following items in a plastic bag and put it in the room to the left of the entrance to the Church.

SCHOOL KIT

- 4 - 70-sheet spiral notebooks of wide- or college-ruled paper, approximately 8"x10.5"
- 1 - 30 cm ruler, or a ruler with centimeters on one side and inches on the other
- 1 - pencil sharpener
- 1 - pair of blunt scissors (safety scissors with embedded steel blades work well)
- 5 - unsharpened #2 pencils with erasers; secure together with a rubber band
- 5 - black or blue ballpoint pens (no gel ink); secure together with a rubber band
- 1 - box of 16 or 24 crayons
- 1 - 2.5 inch eraser

PERSONAL CARE KIT

- 1 - light-weight bath size towel (between 20"x40" and 52"x27"), dark color recommended
- 1 - adult size toothbrush in its original packaging*
- 1 - sturdy comb
- 1 - metal nail clippers

* toothbrush multi-packs may be used by sealing an individual toothbrush in a business-sized envelope

August 23 “We run to help people in need; we run to deal with emergencies and crises and the problems of every day; we take the Good News to people we love, family and friends and neighbors alike. But there are also times we can sit—and rejoice that Jesus is risen, that evil is conquered, and that God’s victory is certain.” Dr. Kari Vo – A Life Quote from Lutherans For Life • www.lutheransforlife.org

Matt. 16:27 – “For the Son of Man is going to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay each person according to what he has done.” St Paul talks about rewards on the Last Day in 1 Corinthians 3, and Jesus says more about this “repaying” in Matt. 19:27-30. Bottom line: Your good works can’t buy you heaven, but in Christ your good works do matter. They are pleasing to your Heavenly Father, and they will be rewarded. In other words, our sacrifices for the Lord’s Kingdom are not in vain, and they are not unnoticed by your Father. This should encourage you in your faithfulness.

August 23 “We run to help people in need; we run to deal with emergencies and crises and the problems of every day; we take the Good News to people we love, family and friends and neighbors alike. But there are also times we can sit—and rejoice that Jesus is risen, that evil is conquered, and that God’s victory is certain.” Dr. Kari Vo – A Life Quote from Lutherans For Life • www.lutheransforlife.org

Matt. 16:27 – “For the Son of Man is going to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay each person according to what he has done.” St Paul talks about rewards on the Last Day in 1 Corinthians 3, and Jesus says more about this “repaying” in Matt. 19:27-30. Bottom line: Your good works can’t buy you heaven, but in Christ your good works do matter. They are pleasing to your Heavenly Father, and they will be rewarded. In other words, our sacrifices for the Lord’s Kingdom are not in vain, and they are not unnoticed by your Father. This should encourage you in your faithfulness.

The August 4 explosion in the Beirut, Lebanon harbor destroyed three of LWR's (Lutheran World Relief) 40-foot shipping containers stored in the port. These containers held more than 22,000 LWR Mission Quilts, 100 cartons of School Kits, 300 cartons of Personal Care kits, and 125 cartons of Baby Care kits that were being prepared for distribution to an estimated 24,550 men, women, and children who were already in great need. The total monetary value of this loss is more than $623,000, although the value of the time and love of the quilters and kit-makers put into sewing, assembling, and praying over these items is impossible to calculate. Though the loss is small compared to any loss of life, LWR is devastated that our neighbors who were already struggling in refugee camps and those that lost their homes as a result of the explosion will suffer even more without them.

What can you do, you ask? You can

1. donate money either this Sunday (August 23) or next (August 30) that will be sent to LWR, and/or
2. donate items for a school kit(s) and/or personal care kit(s). We will collect complete kits at the Church until Sunday, October 25. Assemble a kit with the following items in a plastic bag and put it in the room to the left of the entrance to the Church.

SCHOOL KIT

- 4 - 70-sheet spiral notebooks of wide- or college-ruled paper, approximately 8"x10.5"
- 1 - 30 cm ruler, or a ruler with centimeters on one side and inches on the other
- 1 - pencil sharpener
- 1 - pair of blunt scissors (safety scissors with embedded steel blades work well)
- 5 - unsharpened #2 pencils with erasers; secure together with a rubber band
- 5 - black or blue ballpoint pens (no gel ink); secure together with a rubber band
- 1 - box of 16 or 24 crayons
- 1 - 2.5 inch eraser

PERSONAL CARE KIT

- 1 - light-weight bath size towel (between 20"x40" and 52"x27"), dark color recommended
- 1 - adult size toothbrush in its original packaging*
- 1 - sturdy comb
- 1 - metal nail clippers

* toothbrush multi-packs may be used by sealing an individual toothbrush in a business-sized envelope

Thank you for contributing your outdated Portals of Prayer and the hope and comfort the Gospel brings to inmates. Receptacle is in the Narthex.

August 23 “We run to help people in need; we run to deal with emergencies and crises and the problems of every day; we take the Good News to people we love, family and friends and neighbors alike. But there are also times we can sit—and rejoice that Jesus is risen, that evil is conquered, and that God’s victory is certain.” Dr. Kari Vo – A Life Quote from Lutherans For Life • www.lutheransforlife.org

Matt. 16:27 – “For the Son of Man is going to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay each person according to what he has done.” St Paul talks about rewards on the Last Day in 1 Corinthians 3, and Jesus says more about this “repaying” in Matt. 19:27-30. Bottom line: Your good works can’t buy you heaven, but in Christ your good works do matter. They are pleasing to your Heavenly Father, and they will be rewarded. In other words, our sacrifices for the Lord’s Kingdom are not in vain, and they are not unnoticed by your Father. This should encourage you in your faithfulness.

The August 4 explosion in the Beirut, Lebanon harbor destroyed three of LWR's (Lutheran World Relief) 40-foot shipping containers stored in the port. These containers held more than 22,000 LWR Mission Quilts, 100 cartons of School Kits, 300 cartons of Personal Care kits, and 125 cartons of Baby Care kits that were being prepared for distribution to an estimated 24,550 men, women, and children who were already in great need. The total monetary value of this loss is more than $623,000, although the value of the time and love of the quilters and kit-makers put into sewing, assembling, and praying over these items is impossible to calculate. Though the loss is small compared to any loss of life, LWR is devastated that our neighbors who were already struggling in refugee camps and those that lost their homes as a result of the explosion will suffer even more without them.

What can you do, you ask? You can

1. donate money either this Sunday (August 23) or next (August 30) that will be sent to LWR, and/or
2. donate items for a school kit(s) and/or personal care kit(s). We will collect complete kits at the Church until Sunday, October 25. Assemble a kit with the following items in a plastic bag and put it in the room to the left of the entrance to the Church.

SCHOOL KIT

- 4 - 70-sheet spiral notebooks of wide- or college-ruled paper, approximately 8"x10.5"
- 1 - 30 cm ruler, or a ruler with centimeters on one side and inches on the other
- 1 - pencil sharpener
- 1 - pair of blunt scissors (safety scissors with embedded steel blades work well)
- 5 - unsharpened #2 pencils with erasers; secure together with a rubber band
- 5 - black or blue ballpoint pens (no gel ink); secure together with a rubber band
- 1 - box of 16 or 24 crayons
- 1 - 2.5 inch eraser

PERSONAL CARE KIT

- 1 - light-weight bath size towel (between 20"x40" and 52"x27"), dark color recommended
- 1 - adult size toothbrush in its original packaging*
- 1 - sturdy comb
- 1 - metal nail clippers

* toothbrush multi-packs may be used by sealing an individual toothbrush in a business-sized envelope

Thank you for contributing your outdated Portals of Prayer and the hope and comfort the Gospel brings to inmates. Receptacle is in the Narthex.

August 23 “We run to help people in need; we run to deal with emergencies and crises and the problems of every day; we take the Good News to people we love, family and friends and neighbors alike. But there are also times we can sit—and rejoice that Jesus is risen, that evil is conquered, and that God’s victory is certain.” Dr. Kari Vo – A Life Quote from Lutherans For Life • www.lutheransforlife.org

Matt. 16:27 – “For the Son of Man is going to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay each person according to what he has done.” St Paul talks about rewards on the Last Day in 1 Corinthians 3, and Jesus says more about this “repaying” in Matt. 19:27-30. Bottom line: Your good works can’t buy you heaven, but in Christ your good works do matter. They are pleasing to your Heavenly Father, and they will be rewarded. In other words, our sacrifices for the Lord’s Kingdom are not in vain, and they are not unnoticed by your Father. This should encourage you in your faithfulness.

The August 4 explosion in the Beirut, Lebanon harbor destroyed three of LWR's (Lutheran World Relief) 40-foot shipping containers stored in the port. These containers held more than 22,000 LWR Mission Quilts, 100 cartons of School Kits, 300 cartons of Personal Care kits, and 125 cartons of Baby Care kits that were being prepared for distribution to an estimated 24,550 men, women, and children who were already in great need. The total monetary value of this loss is more than $623,000, although the value of the time and love of the quilters and kit-makers put into sewing, assembling, and praying over these items is impossible to calculate. Though the loss is small compared to any loss of life, LWR is devastated that our neighbors who were already struggling in refugee camps and those that lost their homes as a result of the explosion will suffer even more without them.

What can you do, you ask? You can

1. donate money either this Sunday (August 23) or next (August 30) that will be sent to LWR, and/or
2. donate items for a school kit(s) and/or personal care kit(s). We will collect complete kits at the Church until Sunday, October 25. Assemble a kit with the following items in a plastic bag and put it in the room to the left of the entrance to the Church.

SCHOOL KIT

- 4 - 70-sheet spiral notebooks of wide- or college-ruled paper, approximately 8"x10.5"
- 1 - 30 cm ruler, or a ruler with centimeters on one side and inches on the other
- 1 - pencil sharpener
- 1 - pair of blunt scissors (safety scissors with embedded steel blades work well)
- 5 - unsharpened #2 pencils with erasers; secure together with a rubber band
- 5 - black or blue ballpoint pens (no gel ink); secure together with a rubber band
- 1 - box of 16 or 24 crayons
- 1 - 2.5 inch eraser

PERSONAL CARE KIT

- 1 - light-weight bath size towel (between 20"x40" and 52"x27"), dark color recommended
- 1 - adult size toothbrush in its original packaging*
- 1 - sturdy comb
- 1 - metal nail clippers

* toothbrush multi-packs may be used by sealing an individual toothbrush in a business-sized envelope

August 23 “We run to help people in need; we run to deal with emergencies and crises and the problems of every day; we take the Good News to people we love, family and friends and neighbors alike. But there are also times we can sit—and rejoice that Jesus is risen, that evil is conquered, and that God’s victory is certain.” Dr. Kari Vo – A Life Quote from Lutherans For Life • www.lutheransforlife.org

Matt. 16:27 – “For the Son of Man is going to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay each person according to what he has done.” St Paul talks about rewards on the Last Day in 1 Corinthians 3, and Jesus says more about this “repaying” in Matt. 19:27-30. Bottom line: Your good works can’t buy you heaven, but in Christ your good works do matter. They are pleasing to your Heavenly Father, and they will be rewarded. In other words, our sacrifices for the Lord’s Kingdom are not in vain, and they are not unnoticed by your Father. This should encourage you in your faithfulness.

The August 4 explosion in the Beirut, Lebanon harbor destroyed three of LWR's (Lutheran World Relief) 40-foot shipping containers stored in the port. These containers held more than 22,000 LWR Mission Quilts, 100 cartons of School Kits, 300 cartons of Personal Care kits, and 125 cartons of Baby Care kits that were being prepared for distribution to an estimated 24,550 men, women, and children who were already in great need. The total monetary value of this loss is more than $623,000, although the value of the time and love of the quilters and kit-makers put into sewing, assembling, and praying over these items is impossible to calculate. Though the loss is small compared to any loss of life, LWR is devastated that our neighbors who were already struggling in refugee camps and those that lost their homes as a result of the explosion will suffer even more without them.

What can you do, you ask? You can

1. donate money either this Sunday (August 23) or next (August 30) that will be sent to LWR, and/or
2. donate items for a school kit(s) and/or personal care kit(s). We will collect complete kits at the Church until Sunday, October 25. Assemble a kit with the following items in a plastic bag and put it in the room to the left of the entrance to the Church.

SCHOOL KIT

- 4 - 70-sheet spiral notebooks of wide- or college-ruled paper, approximately 8"x10.5"
- 1 - 30 cm ruler, or a ruler with centimeters on one side and inches on the other
- 1 - pencil sharpener
- 1 - pair of blunt scissors (safety scissors with embedded steel blades work well)
- 5 - unsharpened #2 pencils with erasers; secure together with a rubber band
- 5 - black or blue ballpoint pens (no gel ink); secure together with a rubber band
- 1 - box of 16 or 24 crayons
- 1 - 2.5 inch eraser

PERSONAL CARE KIT

- 1 - light-weight bath size towel (between 20"x40" and 52"x27"), dark color recommended
- 1 - adult size toothbrush in its original packaging*
- 1 - sturdy comb
- 1 - metal nail clippers

* toothbrush multi-packs may be used by sealing an individual toothbrush in a business-sized envelope

August 23 “We run to help people in need; we run to deal with emergencies and crises and the problems of every day; we take the Good News to people we love, family and friends and neighbors alike. But there are also times we can sit—and rejoice that Jesus is risen, that evil is conquered, and that God’s victory is certain.” Dr. Kari Vo – A Life Quote from Lutherans For Life • www.lutheransforlife.org

Matt. 16:27 – “For the Son of Man is going to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay each person according to what he has done.” St Paul talks about rewards on the Last Day in 1 Corinthians 3, and Jesus says more about this “repaying” in Matt. 19:27-30. Bottom line: Your good works can’t buy you heaven, but in Christ your good works do matter. They are pleasing to your Heavenly Father, and they will be rewarded. In other words, our sacrifices for the Lord’s Kingdom are not in vain, and they are not unnoticed by your Father. This should encourage you in your faithfulness.

The August 4 explosion in the Beirut, Lebanon harbor destroyed three of LWR's (Lutheran World Relief) 40-foot shipping containers stored in the port. These containers held more than 22,000 LWR Mission Quilts, 100 cartons of School Kits, 300 cartons of Personal Care kits, and 125 cartons of Baby Care kits that were being prepared for distribution to an estimated 24,550 men, women, and children who were already in great need. The total monetary value of this loss is more than $623,000, although the value of the time and love of the quilters and kit-makers put into sewing, assembling, and praying over these items is impossible to calculate. Though the loss is small compared to any loss of life, LWR is devastated that our neighbors who were already struggling in refugee camps and those that lost their homes as a result of the explosion will suffer even more without them.

What can you do, you ask? You can

1. donate money either this Sunday (August 23) or next (August 30) that will be sent to LWR, and/or
2. donate items for a school kit(s) and/or personal care kit(s). We will collect complete kits at the Church until Sunday, October 25. Assemble a kit with the following items in a plastic bag and put it in the room to the left of the entrance to the Church.

SCHOOL KIT

- 4 - 70-sheet spiral notebooks of wide- or college-ruled paper, approximately 8"x10.5"
- 1 - 30 cm ruler, or a ruler with centimeters on one side and inches on the other
- 1 - pencil sharpener
- 1 - pair of blunt scissors (safety scissors with embedded steel blades work well)
- 5 - unsharpened #2 pencils with erasers; secure together with a rubber band
- 5 - black or blue ballpoint pens (no gel ink); secure together with a rubber band
- 1 - box of 16 or 24 crayons
- 1 - 2.5 inch eraser

PERSONAL CARE KIT

- 1 - light-weight bath size towel (between 20"x40" and 52"x27"), dark color recommended
- 1 - adult size toothbrush in its original packaging*
- 1 - sturdy comb
- 1 - metal nail clippers

* toothbrush multi-packs may be used by sealing an individual toothbrush in a business-sized envelope

August 23 “We run to help people in need; we run to deal with emergencies and crises and the problems of every day; we take the Good News to people we love, family and friends and neighbors alike. But there are also times we can sit—and rejoice that Jesus is risen, that evil is conquered, and that God’s victory is certain.” Dr. Kari Vo – A Life Quote from Lutherans For Life • www.lutheransforlife.org

Matt. 16:27 – “For the Son of Man is going to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay each person according to what he has done.” St Paul talks about rewards on the Last Day in 1 Corinthians 3, and Jesus says more about this “repaying” in Matt. 19:27-30. Bottom line: Your good works can’t buy you heaven, but in Christ your good works do matter. They are pleasing to your Heavenly Father, and they will be rewarded. In other words, our sacrifices for the Lord’s Kingdom are not in vain, and they are not unnoticed by your Father. This should encourage you in your faithfulness.

The August 4 explosion in the Beirut, Lebanon harbor destroyed three of LWR's (Lutheran World Relief) 40-foot shipping containers stored in the port. These containers held more than 22,000 LWR Mission Quilts, 100 cartons of School Kits, 300 cartons of Personal Care kits, and 125 cartons of Baby Care kits that were being prepared for distribution to an estimated 24,550 men, women, and children who were already in great need. The total monetary value of this loss is more than $623,000, although the value of the time and love of the quilters and kit-makers put into sewing, assembling, and praying over these items is impossible to calculate. Though the loss is small compared to any loss of life, LWR is devastated that our neighbors who were already struggling in refugee camps and those that lost their homes as a result of the explosion will suffer even more without them.

What can you do, you ask? You can

1. donate money either this Sunday (August 23) or next (August 30) that will be sent to LWR, and/or
2. donate items for a school kit(s) and/or personal care kit(s). We will collect complete kits at the Church until Sunday, October 25. Assemble a kit with the following items in a plastic bag and put it in the room to the left of the entrance to the Church.

The August 4 explosion in the Beirut, Lebanon harbor destroyed three of LWR's (Lutheran World Relief) 40-foot shipping containers stored in the port. These containers held more than 22,000 LWR Mission Quilts, 100 cartons of School Kits, 300 cartons of Personal Care kits, and 125 cartons of Baby Care kits that were being prepared for distribution to an estimated 24,550 men, women, and children who were already in great need. The total monetary value of this loss is more than $623,000, although the value of the time and love of the quilters and kit-makers put into sewing, assembling, and praying over these items is impossible to calculate. Though the loss is small compared to any loss of life, LWR is devastated that our neighbors who were already struggling in refugee camps and those that lost their homes as a result of the explosion will suffer even more without them.

What can you do, you ask? You can

1. donate money either this Sunday (August 23) or next (August 30) that will be sent to LWR, and/or
2. donate items for a school kit(s) and/or personal care kit(s). We will collect complete kits at the Church until Sunday, October 25. Assemble a kit with the following items in a plastic bag and put it in the room to the left of the entrance to the Church.

August 23 “We run to help people in need; we run to deal with emergencies and crises and the problems of every day; we take the Good News to people we love, family and friends and neighbors alike. But there are also times we can sit—and rejoice that Jesus is risen, that evil is conquered, and that God’s victory is certain.” Dr. Kari Vo – A Life Quote from Lutherans For Life • www.lutheransforlife.org

Matt. 16:27 – “For the Son of Man is going to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay each person according to what he has done.” St Paul talks about rewards on the Last Day in 1 Corinthians 3, and Jesus says more about this “repaying” in Matt. 19:27-30. Bottom line: Your good works can’t buy you heaven, but in Christ your good works do matter. They are pleasing to your Heavenly Father, and they will be rewarded. In other words, our sacrifices for the Lord’s Kingdom are not in vain, and they are not unnoticed by your Father. This should encourage you in your faithfulness.
