Trunk or Treat
 Sunday, October 31st
 5:00 – 6:00 - Immanuel Parking Lot.

Come join the fun. Decorate your vehicle (it doesn't have to be elaborate), or come in costume (or not) and help greet kids and pass out treats and books. (Both will be provided.) It's just an hour and lots of fun. We'd also like to have a "Director of Traffic" or 2 to help insure the safety of children in the parking lots as cars are coming and going.

Thank you for the many prayers during my mom's illness and passing. Your kind words and caring thoughts made a difficult situation a little easier. I feel blessed to have such an amazing church family. Thanks again for your love and support. --Michelle Wennedt

You're Invited – Grand Opening
Knox County Community Artisans
Saturday, October 30th from 12:00 noon to 5:00 PM

On May 15, 2020 Sue and Glenn Busse, along with 6 others, embarked on a journey. By acquiring 2188 Veterans Drive in Galesburg, formerly the Antique Crafts Mall, the group created the Knox County Community Artisans. The non-profit has a 2500 sq. ft. woodshop, classrooms, conference room, common area, all dedicated to people to Learn the Arts, Use the Arts, and Enjoy the Arts. During the last 17 months through diligent work provided by countless volunteers, we are ready to open to the public.

Saturday October 30 from 12:00 – 5:00 PM we will have our Grand Opening open house. We also will show the public the beginning of a store, Yours 2 Create. It is a unique supply shop for Artists and Crafters and a place to donate unused supplies.

We would love to have you come and visit us that day, but more importantly keep us in your prayers.

Reformation service - Varna, IL- St. Paul's Lutheran Church- Sunday, October 31, 2021
Service is at 3:30 PM, Rev. Dr. Wallace Schulz is the guest preacher – and service followed by a meal.

A reply is requested by Monday, October 25, 2021 - so the number of meals can be planned for.
Great chance to hear and meet Dr. Schulz.

Hebrews 7:27 – “He has no need, like those high priests, to offer sacrifices daily, first for his own sins and then for those of the people, since he did this once for all when he offered up himself.” The great sacrifice of Jesus upon the cross covers the sins of all mankind. When that sacrifice was made, Jesus proclaimed: “It is finished.” No sacrifice of ours is needed to cover our sins. And yet St. Paul tells us to be “living sacrifices,” and Jesus tells us to “lay your offering at the altar.” So sacrificial giving goes on, but now its purpose is transformed by the one sin-atoning sacrifice of Christ. Now our giving and serving are sacrifices of thanksgiving, gifts of self in serving others for Christ's sake.

“Society should address every act of injustice and partiality based on ethnicity, and not allow politicians to use envy or ‘race’ for election plays. ‘Wisdom from above’ is needed, says James, lest there be ‘wars among you.’ Resist the calls to revolution and repair to the One who is able to bring all men together, at the Cross.” James M. Kushiner, The Fellowship of St. James – A Life Quote from Lutherans For Life • lutheransforlife.org
